

A Rare Opportunity: Join Nobel Laureate Prof. Oliver Hart for an Inspiring Lecture

Prof. Oliver Hart

Professor of Economics Harvard University

2016 Nobel Laureate

We are thrilled to invite you to hear from Prof. Oliver Hart, Nobel Laureate and Professor of Economics at Harvard University, in a special event where he will share:

- His journey to the Nobel Prize
- Insights on success and achieving it in your life
- How economic thinking can solve real-world problems
- Advice on learning, facing challenges, and building a meaningful career
- A Q&A session with Prof. Hart

This is a unique chance to learn from one of the most influential economists of our times and gain valuable perspectives for your own path.

Biography

Prof. Oliver Hart is a Nobel Laureate in Economics, awarded the prestigious prize in 2016 for his pioneering work in contract theory, a field that has profoundly influenced economics, law, corporate governance, and public policy. His research focuses on how contracts and incentives shape relationships in areas such as organizational design, financial structures, and government policy. Currently a professor at Harvard University, Prof. Hart has authored numerous influential papers and books that have reshaped our understanding of economic theory and its real-world applications. A leader in his field, he has also contributed to advancing economic policy by advising governments and organizations on critical issues. His innovative approach and dedication to his work continue to inspire both his peers and students around the world.

Tuesday December 10th , 2024

12:00 – 01:00 PM

Princess Haya Auditorium